9.3. The Registrar and the Registry shall not be held liable to the Registrant for any actions aimed at fulfillment of the effective judicial act.

9.4. In the event that the third parties bring a lawsuit against the Registrar and/or Registry in connection with registration or use of the third-level domain name, the Registrant is bound, at their request, to reimburse the Registrar (Registry) for losses (including legal assistance and legal representation costs) incurred by the Registrar and/or Registry in relation with this lawsuit.
